foreword...

Recognizing fifty years of development as John B. Stetson University, the staff of the 1939 Hatter has designed this book as a tribute to their alma mater.

Beginning its history as DeLand Academy in 1883, the school was enlarged two years later to include a college. In 1889, at the suggestion of the founder, Mr. Henry A. DeLand, the institution was chartered as John B. Stetson University in recognition of Mr. Stetson's gifts.

Fifty years have elapsed since Stetson's inception. Now it is our aim to show the Stetson of today — a university contemporaneous and compatible with modern achievement as reflected in this year's world exposition.

WILLIAM SIMS ALLEN, A.M., Ph.D., LL.D.

President of the University

the president's message

Stetson continues to go forward. The session 1938-39 has been outstanding in a number of ways. Scholarship has exceeded previous years. The enrollment is the highest in the Institution's history. Students have shown unusually deep interest in the Forum lectures, in debate, in literary activities, in student government, in the finest music, in dramatics, in religious services. The great scholarly Faculty has given its best to make the University finer. Thus the year has been one of marked success.

The ideals of Stetson, from its founding, have been scholarship, culture, Christian character. The ideals are the same today. As the University continues to grow it must ever be so. Stetson will thus ever be distinctive in its contribution to civilization.

Sincerely,

William Sims Allen,

Dean of the College of Law and Professor of Law

the stetson college of law was established with a two-year course of study in 1900, and increased in 1923 to a three-year course. It is now a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is fully accredited by the American Bar Association. Several new features have been added to the work of the College of Law this past year; the Legal Aid Clinic and the Law Club competitions being of especial value.

The student body of the College of Law has organized itself into the Stetson Student Bar Association for the primary purpose of self-government. Their outstanding achievement of the year has been the adoption of the "honor" system.

Graduates of the Stetson College of Law are to be found among the outstanding men of the state and the nation. Some of the distinguished positions they hold and have held include: Circuit Court Judge, U. S. District Court Judge, County Judge, Governor, Foreign Minister, U. S. Congressman, Florida Supreme Court Judge, and District Attorney.

The kaleidoscopic pageantry of a year slides by in vivid retrospect . . . the winey warmth of another back-to-school September . . . dormitories emanating the sparkle of youth . . . the glorious rush and excitement of orientation . . . Kay Deal's whacking good impersonation of Dean McCullough on Freshman Night . . . a green-and-white team meeting on orange-and-blue one in a Gainesville stadium one crisp evening . . . astonishing gains, passes, then a touchdown and pandemonium breaks loose in the bleachers . . . Stetson has beaten Florida for the first time in 29 years! . . . in DeLond, students rush down the Boulevard in the shrieking intricacies of a triumphal snake dance . . . President Allen in a pink bathrobe addresses a throng of victory-mad Stetsonites on his front lawn . . . and later, lights a midnight bonfire on Hulley Field . . . rush week with banquets and boat rides, stars and moons swimming gloriously through the rushees' dazzled heads . . . the torment ended at last by bids and pledging . . . talk of a swimming pool . . . and the Reporter's vivid "Artists and Models" show, designed to augment the pool fund . . . music by Theurer and Hall . . . Jane Taft, the omnipresent progenitor of the show impeccably distinguished in velvet, nervously hoping everything will be all right . . . footlights at the Stover Theatre going up for "First Lady," the year's most magnificent theatrical devastation . . . the exciting dramatic debut of Petit Ferguson . . . Stetson's first song contest—brainchild of Professor William H. Bailey—with excitingly close competition among the five best student composers . . . Dick Feasel and Ruth Newlin eventually triumphing with their pep songs which make the Washington and Lee Swing look like a composition in $\frac{3}{4}$ time . . . the precedent-shattering Non-Frat political victory . . . with Hartsfield and Dentler emerging as a gracious Mayor and Hostess . . . the return of the alumni . . . the thrilling sinister drums of "Emperor Jones" . . . afterwards students and alums singing Alma Mater in the Quad . . . with something catching in everyone's throat . . . Saturday, sunshine, pomp, bands playing, pretty girls waving from floats . . . and to round out the day, an exciting football game on an afternoon as clear as a baby's laugh . . . more football games . . . debate trips . . . John Masefield's "Coming of the King" . . . and the quiet hallowed beauty of the traditional candlelight service . . . Chaudoin Hall white beneath a winter moon, with a single candle glowing in every window . . . the chimes playing Silent Night softly . . . Christmas, shadowed for all by the passing of one gallantly gay, dear to all as a person in whom youth was a strong flame . . . January, and roommates rushing upon one another in ecstatic rediscovery . . . the "Purge," administrative sulphur and molasses . . . Josephine Antoine making the auditorium ring with her glorious music . . . later holding court on a Chaudoin divan with her fabulously wide hoop skirt spread out about her . . . loss of a thrilling heart-breaker to the G-ville basketball squad . . . Forum . . . teas . . . and the Terrible Mid Terms! . . . the rigamarole of registration again . . . Grafton Pyne's ultra dinner-dance at the Colleae Arms . . . the visit of ruddy-cheeked Mr. John B. Stetson, Jr. to the campus . . . the passing of Willie Anderson, an animating and constructive force on campus . . . as well as one who wore the purple with commendable, careless charm . . . the exquisitely unforgettable music of "My Hero" still ringing in dozed ears hours after the final curtain has fallen on "The Chocoolate Soldier" . . . sorority and fraternity initiations, flowers, formals, candles, and the beauty of ceremony . . . Frances Cae's wedding . . . the superb satire of "Admirable Critchton" . . . the Glee Club talking more hopefully of Baltimore . . . the initial Non-Frat dance . . . in a wonderland of decorations and music, the sort of success a social chairman dreams of . . . Ruth Newlin's senior recital . . . a slim girl in white spotlighted in blue sending a soft glow into her listeners with her delicate playing of a Debussy reflection . . . "Onward, Christian Soldiers" a two-to-one favorite on our hit parade during the songbookless week of chapel . . . the baseball team getting boosted to its financial feet through "Sugar and Spice"—Hall and Stetson's second march deep into Broadway's territory . . . Sigma Nu's aborted attempt at a campus dating bureau . . . a forensic foursome off to Baton Rouge to win laurels for Stetson at the Southern Speech convention . . . the vigorous vitriol of Shaw and Paul McEntire's rallicking liaison . . . Professor Plautus I. Lipsey glamorizes Stetson in a really top-flight pictorial bulletin . . . the gorgeous respite of Spring holidays . . . "No More Peace" offering an appallingly timely message . . . the Green and White's charitable game . . . and the rains came . . . May Day with the sensuous pageantry of ancient Egypt . . . Jane McCarty reigning beautifully as the Queen of the May . . . the second annual interfraternity sing—keenest musical battle of the year . . . a walkaway for the Pi Kaps with no competition offered, but the Alpha Xi's and the Zeta's do an encore before the AXD's finally convince the judges . . . the finally emerged literary achievement of the Stetsonian . . . talk of student government dominating conversations . . . constitution readings and conferences . . . seniors counting days half-tearfully, half-joyously . . . the Glee Club off to Baltimore, New York, and glory . . . and for those they left behind—Finals! . . . Absolute quiet and study signs everywhere . . . and then the flurry of departure . . . Commencement, the epitomizing moment, the short-lived but wonderful pinnacle of college . . . the academic procession beneath the gray-bearded oaks . . . the tremulous step forward to receive the world's most precious document . . . back to happy friends and relatives, offering congratulations . . . with new step and strangely metamorphosed outlook . . . the kaleidoscope stops . . . it is year's end.

It's a lie! . . . No alarm could make THAT much noise . . . its mather must have been a foundry whistle . . . this place has all the pastoral peace of Times Square. . . . Mmm, which hole in this sack shall I stick my foot through? . . . No time for breakfast. It's a good thing I'm allergic to toast and eggs. . . . "Morning, glory, mind if I walk over to Libby Hall with you?" . . . My name ought to be Zylch, then maybe I'd get to class on time . . . You needn't glare at me like that, you old buzzard, I'm only three minutes late! . . . I'm doing you a favor coming to class at all . . . so you're springing a six weeks test. Butch? O.K., it'll be as much of a shock to you as it is to us. (Ed. note: Here the train of thought is interrupted. Who thinks during a test?) . . . The bell at last! Another five minutes and both feet would have been asleep . . . get off my instep, you hulking peasant. Whaddya think I am, a gang-plank? . . . Ah, sanctuary at last. The cool, sweet stillness of Chapel, interrupted only by the first and last stanzas of "Yield Not To Temptation" . . . The New Deal at Stetsan—A chicken in every other pot and a canine on every rostrum . . . let's get out of this fire-trap . . . make this a quickie, prof, and not too loud, please. I'm getting behind on my correspondence . . . what strategy shall I use on this parental touch? I'll appeal to their sympathy, only I'd have to be eighth dimensional and clairvoyant to find it . . . this letter ought to produce, produce, produce. It better. If it doesn't, I'll have to . . . did he call on me or does he just like the euphonious sound of my name? . . . Sorry, sir. I'm not personally acquainted with the morale of the Polynesians . . . and step off your soap-box, slouch . . . never mind. There's the gong . . . well, guess I'll socialize a little with the girls and boys . . . think I could stand some refreshment . . . a little dope never hurt no bad. Hmm, that doesn't scan . . . did I say I wanted a coke? Hallucinations . . . you know, it's this constant rush, rush, rush that's the curse of American life . . . where'll it get you—in the end? . . . What am I doing wasting time at this watering hole? . . . Think I'll hustle my bustle over to the dorm. Ought to be a little billet-doux from Gaineshassee waiting for me . . . or at least a Sears Roebuck Catalogue (adv.) . . . that's life for ya. There ought to be, but there isn't . . . Oh well, we can always fall back (ahem) on the local talent . . . I'm allergic to ptomaine. Let's go to lunch, roomie . . . Do I wanta spare rib? Do I look as though I needed one? None of these questions look even vaguely familiar . . . I'm so-a-freud . . . things are getting adler and adler . . . Ah, here we are, my little split personality. We'll go through this one like, like, like nothing human' . . . Well, there goes another invitation to the D-list . . . but who am I to care? . . . I'll drown my sorrows in DeLean. I'll buzz over to Daytona. I'll do something nice for myself—when my check comes in . . . meanwhile, I'll grab some of the shut-eye I didn't get last night. . . . Of course, I could go to the library. After two years my curiosity is aroused. . . . Better wait until same day when they serve refreshments . . . and so, to bed. . . . No, I don't want a ticket to the show . . . No, I'm not going over to the gyn. . . . Yes, I'm not going to the meeting . . . Now can I sleep? . . . No, I can't . . . Got the wanderlust . . . Guess I'll amble down to the Athens (another free plug) . . . One on the popcorn . . . Who's our handsome hero today? Oh, it's Freddy, the March of Time . . . 'Spose he'll come in like a lamb and go out like a ham . . . he did . . . so now I'll take my leave and sail away to DeLand of romance . . . Spike one in a paper cup and write it down. . . . Thanks, I would like a ride up . . . Going to the shakedown Friday night? . . . Dragging a date? . . . Let's swap number seven . . . Just toss me out here . . . Time to hang on the feed bag again . . . What's in the trough tonight? . . . Will you look at that baby cut loose on my meal ticket? . . . I'll either have to get pie a la mode a la mode a la mode or paper my room with dessert tickets . . . let's look around and see if there's anyone interesting to sit with—present company excepted . . . There's a likely looking lot . . . Looking likely for a date too . . . Sit with you? I'd love to . . . I'd love to sit with you, but that's as far as it goes, if you get what I mean, and I think you do . . . This conversation's a washout . . . Think I'll play pixie-ixie with myself . . . Let's see now . . . An inwardly satisfied electrical outlet—smug plug . . . An intoxicated fairy—tite sprite . . . A Stetsan date—a dark park . . . Chaudain's idea of party—free tea . . . Hulley chimes at seven-thirty—wrong dang . . . Editor of the SR—daft Taft . . . Hold your hats boys, here we go again . . . Little Theatre criticism—Hall gall . . . The most 'engaging' Pi Phi—racy Gracie . . . Tom Cobb—Meister shyster . . . A bullied pledge—a meek Greek . . . Sammie's Jelks—matey Katey . . . Sigma Nu theme song—purge dirge . . . Well, that fairly well ends that . . . Gbye. I enjoyed eating with you. It was swell . . . Better try studying . . . Got a little geology to dash off tonight . . . Here we are . . . a tidy bog—a neat peat . . . eroded soil—hurt dirt . . . slightly soiled plaster—smutty putty . . . a schizophreniac—a split wit . . . That's me . . . Aw, nuts. Might as well bull . . . Hello, mind if I come in, or are you talking about me? . . . May I chisel a dream-stick? . . . Which Dean are we discussing tonight? . . . Democracy? Oh, I get it . . . Can't we have a little more racket in this room? . . . Turn the radio on, somebody . . . "Hold Tight"—unflinching clinching . . . Quick. Get to the grill and preserve my sanity . . . Evening refreshment—grill swill . . . No use. I'm a goner!

has been distinguished through its achievements during the past year. In addition to finished faculty and student recitals, the school has presented radio programs and concerts by the band, glee club, and symphony orchestra. Following an established tradition, Handel's "Messiah" was presented during the Christmas season, while later in the year "The Chocolate Soldier" illustrated the blended efforts of all groups within the music department.

Numerous state and district contests were sponsored by the school, faculty members were elected to prominent posts in state and national music organizations, and DeLand's most outstanding citizen was chosen from its faculty group.

STETSON 16--FLORIDA 14, AT GAINESVILLE ★ ★ ★

September 24 will go down in Stetson's history as the most important day of 1938. It is the day that a determined squad of Hatters, who were conceded absolutely no chance to win, journeyed to Gainesville and defeated the highly rated Florida Gators to give Stetson its first victory over Florida in 29 years. This was a team victory. Coaches Cowell and Freeman and every man on the Hatter squad worked together in perfect harmony to make the win possible. Led by their 17 seniors who had twice met defeat at the hands of the Gators, the Hatters were sparked with the idea that they could not lose. It was actual proof of the old adage that a team that won't be beat can't be beat. It was a game in which every man was an individual star, working with his team-mates to achieve that which meant most to him—a victory over the University of Florida.

Stetson 0—Rollins 18, at Home

The Hatters, bruised and weary from the Florida battle, fell before the fast, clever Rollins Tars. Led by Daugherty and Justice, the Tars outplayed the Hatters in every department of the game, scoring in each of the last three quarters. Rollins capitalized on two Stetson fumbles for their first two touchdowns and intercepted a wild Hatter pass in the waning minutes of the game for their third score.

Stetson 28—South Georgia Teachers 0, at Home

Staging a complete reversal of form, the Hatters ran at will over the light Georgians gaining 375 yards for 22 first downs while holding the Teachers to 38 yards and 3 first downs. Hardy carried the pigskin for three of the Hatter scores and Willie Anderson's educated toe added the extra point after each touchdown. Schaefer played his usual brilliant game at end.

Stetson 7—Wofford 6, at Spartanburg, S. C.

On the third play of the game, Hilton of Wofford sped around end for the longest run of the year against the Hatters, a 69 yard touchdown jaunt. Wofford grimly retained their lead until the Hatters drove for a touchdown and an extra point in the third quarter to gain the ascendancy. The final quarter was all Stetson with the Hatters driving toward another touchdown when the game ended.

Stetson 33—Erskine 14, at Home

Stetson, eager to avenge an upset defeat handed them by the Seceders last year, started things off with a bang when Warren broke loose on the first play for a 70 yard run. The Hatters showed a fine passing attack, as well as a good ground game, with Warren and Lowery throwing and Swanson and McClelland doing the receiving. Cotton starred for Erskine, catching a 20 yard pass and running the remaining 60 yards for a touchdown.

Stetson 42—Tampa 0, at Tampa

Keyed to top form, the Hatters gave Tampa the worst trouncing in their history, making 6 touchdowns and 6 extra points. It made no difference who was in the game, the Hatters still continued to score, making it a complete field day. Every man saw action and contributed to the victory. It was a great day for the Green and White.

Stetson 13—Oglethorpe 7, Homecoming

Outplayed by a strong Oglethorpe team during the first half, the Hatters came back after the intermission to score twice and make 1938 a perfect Homecoming. Both teams bogged down by the boiling sun, Stetson took to the air for both her scores, with Cobb and Parmley each taking passes for touchdowns. Captain Frison, Butler, and Mason stood out in the Hatter line.

Stetson 6—Presbyterian 7, at Daytona Beach

Swept off their feet by the fast-charging Blue Stockings, the Hatters went down to their second defeat of the season. Trailing 7 to 0 in the fourth quarter, Stetson rallied, and, under Darst's leadership, marched to within striking distance of the goal, where Warren took a lateral for the score. The opportunity to tie was lost when the kick went wide.

Stetson 6—Rollins 6, at Orlando

Out to redeem their previous defeat by the Tars, the Hatters bottled themselves into a 6 to 0 lead, only to see Rollins score in the closing minutes to turn victory into a tie. Warren broke loose around end for the Hatter score in the second period, while Daugherty crashed over for the Tar's tieing tally. The line play of Vonn, Kirkland, and Minehart stood out for the Hatters in this closing game of a thrilling season.

basketball

the season

Stetson's basketball team, captained by Skeet Cobb, enjoyed a fine season, winning 14 and losing 7 games during the season's play. Coach Freeman's legal business forced him to leave in mid-season, but Coach Cowell took over and continued Freeman's fine record.

Stetson 15—North Carolina State 25

Stetson 20—Wofford 21

Stetson 31—Wofford 33

Stetson 32—Newberry 26

Stetson 27—Newberry 23

Although leading 12 to 11 at the half, the Hatters could not penetrate the tight Tar-heel defense in the second period and fell before the strong Southern conference team. Kirkland led Stetson with 10 points.

Then, failing to find the range of the basket, Stetson's hoopsters dropped two games to Wofford. In both games the lead changed continually with the final result uncertain until the end.

Stetson broke into the win column by taking two games from the Newberry Indians, a large team which was no match for the more aggressive Hatters.

Stetson 44—Union 40

Stetson 49—Union 41

Stetson 29—Florida 32

Stetson 26—Florida 28

With Minehart leading the way with 14 points in the first game, and with Swanson flipping 16 the second night, the Hatters took two smooth games from the strong Union team of Kentucky.

Dame Fortune looked the other way as Stetson lost two hair-raisers to Florida. Zondzukis took matters in his own hands, scoring 15 points in the first game for the Gators. The second game at Gainesville was nip and tuck all the way, Florida scoring the winning basket in the last seconds of play.

Stetson 47—Havana 21

Stetson 48—Havana 35

Stetson 49—Florida Southern 23

Stetson 37—Florida Southern 30

Stetson coasted to two easy victories over a fast but erratic Cuba team. The invaders were unable to match the superior team play of the more experienced Hatters.

Scoring at will on Southern in their first encounter, the Hatters found a greatly improved Southern club in their second meeting. Southern jumped into an early lead, but the Hatters passed them just before the half and retained their lead until the end.

Stetson 50—Rollins 25

Stetson 54—Rollins 25

Stetson 42—Erskine 25

Stetson 52—Erskine 37

Led by Swanson with 14 points in the first game, and by Captain Cobb with 13 points in the second, Stetson proceeded to double the score in both encounters with the Tars. Showing their best form of the season, Stetson's basketeers trounced Erskine in both games held in Hulley gym. Erskine, one of the leading South Carolina teams, just wasn't a match for the Green and White.

Stetson 29—Erskine 33

Stetson 34—Presbyterian 28

Stetson 42—Newberry 36

Stetson 29—Newberry 29

The Hatters split even on their road trip, winning and losing two. Coppola of Newberry and McDonald of Erskine were the deciding factors in the games the Hatters lost. Swanson was the big gun of the Stetson attack, making 43 points in three games.

Stetson 23—Louisiana Normal 32

Matched against the seeded Louisiana Teachers in the annual S.I.A.A. Conference tournament, the Hatters fell before fast and accurate playing. Kirkland scored 11 points to lead the Hatters.

baseball

the season

Stetson's Independent baseball team, coached by Doc Johnson and captained by Jack Gore turned out to be giant killers by defeating some of the finest college baseball teams in the South. Playing with practically no practice, the Hatters defeated Florida, Georgia, Havana, and Raiford, with Tampa and Rollins yet to be played. Prospects look bright for an even better season next year with several promising freshmen eligible to meet conference foes, offsetting the loss of Warren, Clants, and Gare.

Negotiations are already under way to meet some of the finest teams in the country next year, including Michigan State, Notre Dame, Auburn, Duke, and Vanderbilt. It is the hope of the team that baseball will be a varsity sport and that there will be a baseball diamond on Hulley field.

the season

Led by Captain Billy Davis, Stetson's young and inexperienced tennis team undertook the most difficult schedule yet slated for the Hatter racket-wielders. Playing such fine teams as Furman, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Clemson, Rollins, and Wofford, the Stetson netmen lost a majority of their matches, but gained much experience for next season. With every man back for competition next year, the Hatters are looking forward to a fine season in 1940.

frosh football

the season

The Hatter freshmen, coached by Emmett Clonts, won and lost two games, splitting their four-game schedule. Playing the Rollins frosh twice, the Baby Hotters dropped their first game 7 to 6, but came back to trounce the young Tars 13 to 0 in their second encounter. The Stetson frosh were overwhelmed 38 to 0 after traveling to Miami to meet the large and numerous Baby Hurricanes. They ended their season with a victory against the Daytona Beach Hi Hats, 14 to 0, in Daytona Beach. Some fine material was uncovered which is expected to be a great aid to the varsity club next fall.

frosh basketball

the season

Coached by Brady Cowell, the freshmen went through a fine season, winning seven games against only two defeats. Twice the Baby Hatters defeated Daytona Beach, state high school champions, in hard, close games. Other victims of the Stetson freshmen were West Palm Beach Junior College and four independent teams. They lost close games to St. Petersburg Junior College and Sparks Theaters of Daytona Beach. Many of these freshmen are expected to win berths on the varsity squad next year.

"S" CLUB

Since it was founded in 1936, the "S" Club has had as its purpose the development of sportsmanship and the promotion of athletic achievement in the University.

Membership is restricted to men winning varsity letters, and all of these men are devoted to the high scholastic and athletic ideals of their organization.

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization for all University women. Its purpose is the promotion of sports and the development of fellowship in social contacts.

Among its activities are the sponsorship of the intramural league and of high school and collegiate play days. Outstanding events of the W.A.A. year are the Rollins-Stetson play days, All-State Sports Day, and the Water Carnival. Individual interest in athletics is promoted through the awarding of letters to all women earning sufficient points. Chief long-term project of the W.A.A. is still the erection of a swimming pool, and toward this end the organization sponsored Stetson's first "Artists and Models" musical revue.

FRESHMAN ADVISERS

In May, 1938, the plan of Freshman Advisers was instituted by the Dean of Women. Thirty-two Stetson women were selected on the basis of qualities of leadership to assist in making and carrying out Freshman Week Program. They made possible a more effective Guidance Program for freshman women throughout the year and created a finer spirit of cooperation.

 Nov. 30—Dec. 10—Strawberry Leaf Tournament and Northern tour.
 Feb. 16—Harper and Baldwin at DeLand Kiwanis Club.
 March 3—Rubin and Clark meet Florida Southern College.
 March 17—Harper and Graham meet the Univ. of North Carolina at Pierson.
 April 1-8—Southern Association of Teachers of Speech Tournament and the Congress of Human Relations at Baton Rouge, La.
 April 15—High School District Debate Tournament held at Stetson.
 April 17—Lawton and Rubin meet the University of Florida.
 April 27-29—Pi Kappa Delta Province Tournament at Farmville, Va.

DEBATE

The 1939 debate season opened with Prof. C. Addison Hickman taking Baldwin, Graham, Harper, and Lawton to Winthrop's Strawberry Leaf Tournament in South Carolina, November 30. Touring north as far as New York, the debaters met teams from the University of Pennsylvania, Temple, Haverford, Muhlenberg, University of Maryland, University of Richmond, Randolph-Macon, and Wake Forest. The jaunt covered 3,000 miles, during which time the team engaged in 17 debates.

Accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Irving C. Stover, the women's varsity team comprised of Clark, Clarson, Culp, and Theurer attended the Southern Association of Teachers of Speech Tournament at Baton Rouge, April 1-8. In addition to making a good showing in debate against strong Southern teams, the women entered impromptu, after-dinner, and oratorical contests and represented Stetson at the second Congress of Human Relations.

The Pi Kappa Delta province tournament was held at Farmville, Va., April 28-29. Harper, Graham, Lawton, and Rubin, led by Prof. Hickman, represented Florida Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta at Stetson. They engaged in debate, after-dinner, extemporaneous, and impromptu speaking.

The freshman debaters, Fisher, Martin, Service, and Smith, ably coached by Miss Mary Axtell, attended the annual Florida Debate Tournament held at the University of Florida for freshmen and sophomores. At this meet, and in their home engagements, they gave promise of greatly strengthening the varsity team next year.

To educational progress made during the years gone by — to the milestones of achievement which mark Stetson University as outstanding.

To the graduates of 1939 whose path may be rough. Courage and initiative will find a way to solve the maze of the future.

The STETSON $5 SPECIAL

It's Making Hat History

You will stand out like a bright star in the Stetson Special. It's the value that only the world's greatest hatter can afford to offer . . . so that you can afford a Stetson . . . and it's thoroughly a Stetson . . . to the core. See the new International Colors.

Other Stetsons $7.50, $10 and up to $40

BUSINESS MEN!

Obviously it is to your interest to patronize the Orlando Linen & Towel Supply Co., Inc. It is the only Linen Supply serviceing this territory that is incorporated under Florida Law. The company is owned and operated by Floridians, who maintain a sizable pay roll, pay heavy taxes, take active interest in local projects and institutions. Every dollar received is spent in the Territory served, encouraging local enterprise, giving employment, and assisting those in distress. Not one penny goes out of the State to pay fictitious executive salaries; our only objective is to make Florida a more desirable place in which to Live.
